RIYADH
Saudi Arabia

Dear FAYEZ KHAMMAS M ALANAZI,

This refers to your application for a Canadian study permit. According to Canada's Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and Regulations, as an applicant for a study permit, you must establish that your intentions are bona fide and that you will leave Canada by the end of the period authorized for your stay. You must satisfy an officer that you will not contravene the conditions of admission and that you do not belong in a category of persons inadmissible to Canada under the Act. You must satisfy an officer that you will meet the requirements of Part 12 of the Regulations, including satisfying the officer that you have adequate financial resources to pay tuition fees and support your stay in Canada.

Based on a careful review of the information contained in your application and all of the documentation which you have provided in support of your application, I am not satisfied that you meet the requirements of the Act and the Regulations. I am therefore refusing your application.

Subsection 11(1) of the Act states that "A foreign national must, before entering Canada, apply to an officer for a visa or for any other document required by the Regulations. The visa or document shall be issued if, following an examination, the officer is satisfied that the foreign national is not inadmissible and meets the requirements of this Act." Subsection 2(2) specifies that unless otherwise indicated, references in the Act to "this Act" include regulations made under it.

This application is closed. Please note that any new information you wish to provide must be submitted with a new application and processing fee. Should you wish to reapply, I would suggest that you do so only if your situation has changed substantively or you have significant new information to submit.

Sincerely,

Officer

Following an examination of your application, I am not satisfied that you meet the requirements of the Act and the Regulations for the reasons explained below. I am therefore refusing your application.

- Pursuant to Section 219 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, I am not satisfied that you:

 - have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to pay the tuition fees for the course or program of studies that you intend to pursue
 - have sufficient and available financial resources, without working in Canada, to maintain yourself and any family members who are accompanying you during your proposed period of study

- You have not submitted a Certificat d'acceptation du Québec (CAQ).

 - your immigration status
 - your family ties in Canada and in your country of residence
 - length of proposed stay in Canada
 - purpose of visit
 - limited employment prospects in your country of residence
 - your current employment situation
 - your personal assets and financial status.
- You have submitted documentation which lacks authenticity as part of your application. This has diminished the overall credibility of your submission.
- You have not complied with our request for information, as per section 16(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act. To date, you have failed to comply with our request for:
 - Completion of a medical examination
 - An interview
 - The following documents:

From the documents which you have submitted in support of your application, I am not satisfied that you have answered all questions truthfully, as required by subsection 16(1) of the Act. Specifically, I am not satisfied that the following information is truthful:

Other reasons:

YOU DID NOT RESPECT THE CONDITIONS OF YOUR ADMISSION INTO CANADA.
YOU DID NOT LEAVE CANADA BEFORE EXPIRATION OF YOUR AUTHORIZED PERIOD OF STAY.
YOU MAY RE-APPLY IN JUNE 2011.
